

89 million people watched the Super Bowl. How many filed complaint 200,000. A lot yes but not enough for you morons to become hitlers. That is only .25%, not even a half of 1% objected. The only filth on the air ways would be you guys breaking the first amendment. Leave TV alone and really leave Cable stations alone. You are all just big bullies. I can't wait till we get some people with balls in office who throw you all out on yours asses. DOWN with the FCC if they insist on taking away the First amendment. Our forefather would be ashamed of you.
